HPH Hospice Celebrates 12 Years of Service in Citrus County

Will Hold Free Event for the Community

Lecanto, FL (August 14, 2018): In celebration of serving the residents of Citrus County for the past 12 years, HPH Hospice will hold a free community event on Tuesday, August 21, 2018 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. The celebration will take place at the Citrus Resource Center located at 2939 W. Gulf to Lake Highway in Lecanto.

“At HPH Hospice, we are honored to have served Citrus County since 2006,” said Jackie Kendrick, Executive Director for HPH Hospice. “We wanted to celebrate by inviting the entire community to commemorate the occasion with us.”

Local businesses are participating in the celebration with food and beverages catered by Tuscany on the Meadows and musical entertainment provided by DJ Trae.

“As part of the celebration, we will be recognizing key Citrus County community members such as Sheriff Mike Prendergast within the program, which is scheduled to start at 5:35 p.m. sharp,” added Ms. Kendrick.

Throughout the course of the community event and networking opportunity, HPH Hospice team members will be available to answer questions about the organization, bereavement support, volunteerism, employment and so much more.
