Chapters Health System Recognized Again by the Great Place to Work[®] Institute Seventy-five percent of team members said health system a great workplace for fourth year

Tampa, FL (June 03, 2021): Chapters Health System was certified for the fourth consecutive year as a great workplace in the Aging Services category today by the independent analysts at the Great Place to Work[®] Institute. Chapters Health and its affiliates earned this distinction based on extensive ratings provided by its team members in anonymous surveys. A summary of these ratings can be found at: LINK to report.

"Beyond the accolade, which is pridesworthy, I am grateful to all Chapters Health Team members in making this past year what it was," said Andrew Molosky, MBA, FACHE, CHPCA, president and chief executive officer for Chapters Health. "While 2020 was a year many people would love to put behind them, the passion, perseverance, and commitment our team members displayed made this acknowledgement possible and is always worth remembering."

In 2021, 75 percent of team members said Chapters Health is a great place to work – 16 percent higher than the average company in the United States.

"Great Place to Work Certification isn't something that comes easily – it takes ongoing dedication to the employee experience," said Sarah Lewis-Kulin, vice president of global recognition at Great Place to Work. "It's the only official recognition determined by employees' real-time reports of their company culture. Earning this designation means that Chapters Health is one of the best companies to work for in the country."

According to Great Place to Work research, job seekers are 4.5 times more likely to find a great boss at a certified great workplace. Additionally, employees at certified workplaces are 93 percent more likely to look forward to coming to work, and are twice as likely to be paid fairly, and have a fair chance at promotion.
