Chapters Health System Recognized Again by the Great Place to Work[®] Institute 81-percent of team members said health system a great workplace for fifth consecutive year

Tampa, FL (June 1, 2022): Chapters Health System was certified for the fifth consecutive year as a great workplace in the Aging Services category today by the independent analysts at the Great Place to Work[®] Institute. Chapters Health and its affiliates earned this distinction based on extensive ratings provided by its team members in anonymous surveys. A summary of these ratings can be found at: LINK to report.

"Celebrating the fifth year in a row as a Great Place to Work is an accomplishment and accolade directly due to each and every Chapters Health team member," said Andrew Molosky, MBA, FACHE, CHPCA, president and chief executive officer for Chapters Health. "I feel deep gratitude and pride in what we have accomplished in these last couple of turbulent years as we stayed true to our mission of taking care of patients and each other."

In 2022, 81 percent of team members said Chapters Health is a great place to work – 24 percent higher than the average company in the United States.

"Great Place to Work Certification isn't something that comes easily – it takes ongoing dedication to the employee experience," said Sarah Lewis-Kulin, vice president of global recognition at Great Place to Work. "It's the only official recognition determined by employees' real-time reports of their company culture. Earning this designation means that Chapters Health is one of the best companies to work for in the country."

According to Great Place to Work research, job seekers are 4.5 times more likely to find a great boss at a certified great workplace. Additionally, 95-percent of job candidates say reputation is a major factor when considering a job offer. This is music to the ears of Chapters Health as a certified Great Place to Work.
