Chapters Health System Names Chief Medical Officer

TAMPA, FL (August 15, 2022): Chapters Health System, one of the nation’s premier not-for-profit, community-based healthcare organizations headquartered in Temple Terrace, names Tara Friedman, M.D., FAAHPM, as the organization’s new chief medical officer. She will start in this role on Monday, September 19, 2022. Dr. Friedman will provide leadership and oversight of all medical services functions across the entire enterprise.

“At Chapters Health, we are pleased to have Dr. Friedman join our family,” said Andrew Molosky, MBA, FACHE, CHPCA, president and chief executive officer for Chapters Health. “With more than 20 years of healthcare experience, Dr. Friedman is dedicated to innovation, and delivering exceptional hospice and chronic illness programs into community settings.”

Prior to joining Chapters Health, Dr. Friedman was the vice president and national medical officer for Aspire Health, a subsidiary of Anthem. She began her career at Aspire as the senior medical director and incrementally progressed through various promotions during her tenure at the organization.

Dr. Friedman received her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Colgate University in Hamilton, New York and her Medical Degree from Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, New York, and completed her Internal Medicine residency at Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York, New York. In addition, she completed a fellowship in Hospice and Palliative Medicine at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.
